

Mr Peter Martin APM, Ph.D.
Assistant Commissioner,
Queensland Police Service, Australia

Peter Martin is a career police officer having served with the Queensland Police Service (QPS), Australia for over 34 years. He is the Assistant Commissioner responsible for the Brisbane Region. Previous to this the Assistant Commissioner was responsible for Operations Support Command which includes the state-wide tactical and specialist elements of the QPS. The Assistant Commissioner's other recent roles in the Service have included: the Assistant Commissioner responsible for Metropolitan North Region and previous to this Ethical Standards Command.

He is a Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) in the Faculty of Health, School of Psychology & Counselling at Queensland University of Technology (QUT). His doctoral thesis was focused on the police role in reducing alcohol-related harm inside and outside licensed premises. Peter also has an Executive Masters in Public Administration through the Australian and New Zealand School of Government and Griffith University. He also has a Bachelor of Arts in Justice Administration as well as other tertiary qualifications. He is a graduate of the Leadership in Counter-Terrorism (LinCT) Pacific Program.

In 2010, Peter was inducted into the Evidence-Based Policing Hall of Fame at the George Mason University, Virginia, US. He was awarded the Australian Police Medal on Australia Day 2008 for his contribution to policing and the community of Queensland. He is also the recipient of the Emergency Services Medal, National Police Service Medal, National Medal and the Queensland Police Service Medal.